

January 13, 1976

PRESIDENT: All right. Then it is so ordered.

SENATOR KELLY: I just haven't seen Senator Cavanaugh today. He is not absent.

CLERK: Now, Mr. President, there is another amendment offered by Senator Duis. Read amendment.

SENATOR DUIS: Mr. President, I would also ask to have unanimous consent to have this one withdrawn.

PRESIDENT: Any objection? Seeing none, it is so ordered. Senator Cavanaugh was present this morning, Senator Kelly. We have been advised he is gone until this afternoon.

CLERK: Next to come up on the bill is a motion by Senator Cavanaugh to kill the bill.

SENATOR KELLY: Mr. President, in all courtesy to this unwise kill motion, I certainly think we ought to let him have the opportunity to have it on General File instead of moving it over to Select File and cause him 25 votes. So I would bracket to Friday, the 13th.

PRESIDENT: Is there an objection to the request for unanimous consent to bracket the bill in its present state until Friday, the 16th. Seeing none, it is so ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Luedtke asked to pass over LB 275A.

PRESIDENT: So done. There is a request to bracket LB 275A until March 31st or February 31st. March 31st. Any objections? So ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next one is Judiciary Committee, LB 280.

PRESIDENT: Senator Luedtke. Until March 31st. There has been a request for unanimous consent to bracket LB 280, constitutional amendment, until March 31st. Any objections? So ordered.

CLERK: The next motion on LB 310 is by Frank Lewis who is not present.

PRESIDENT: What should we do with 310, Senator Dworak? Senator Dworak, this 310, I believe it is an abstract bill and Senator Lewis is not present. He has a motion on it.

SENATOR DWORAK: Senator DeCamp has prepared an amendment and he is not here today and this amendment hasn't been printed and so I would like to wait on this until that amendment comes in.

PRESIDENT: To a date certain.

SENATOR DWORAK: I think we could make a date certain on that. This is the 13th. Let's make it Friday, the 16th.
